Cambridge English Level 5 Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

The Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (CELTA) is an initial teacher training course which consists of 200 hours including 120 guided learning hours and 6 hours of teaching practice. It aims to enable candidates to:

- acquire essential subject knowledge and familiarity with the principles of effective teaching
- acquire a range of practical skills for teaching English to adult learners
- demonstrate their ability to apply their learning in a real teaching context.

Candidates who complete the course successfully can work in a variety of English language teaching contexts around the world.

Course content

There are five topic areas:

1. Learners and teachers, and the teaching and learning context
2. Language analysis and awareness
3. Language skills: reading, listening, speaking and writing
4. Planning and resources for different teaching contexts
5. Developing teaching skills and professionalism

Assessment

There are two components:

Component One: Planning and teaching

Component Two: Classroom-related written assignments

Grades of Award

Candidates who have fulfilled the course requirements and met the assessment criteria receive an overall grade (Pass/Pass B/Pass A).

An individual report which includes details of performance and achievement is produced for each candidate by the centre at which the candidate completed the course.

Any alteration to this certificate renders it invalid and use of an altered certificate could constitute a criminal offence.

If there is any doubt about the details recorded on the certificate, contact the local Cambridge English centre for advice on verification procedures.

The course was delivered 100% online.

Overall Assessment:

Lana was a very motivated, hard-working trainee who demonstrated a growing understanding of the methodology introduced on the course in both the planning and execution of her lessons.

She was a very active and thoughtful member of input sessions and her written work was completed to a good standard. She met all deadlines despite working during the course and she was very supportive of her peers.

In her lessons she demonstrated a good range of teaching skills and classroom management strategies. She was confident with technology and adapted course book materials at two different levels to good effect.

Her professionalism was excellent and she was a pleasure to work with.
